Dear Sir,

We have had the pleasure of several calls recently from your son and his wife, and to-day they brought us the good news that the Dartmouth Papers are now available and that the photostats you need will be forthcoming.

No doubt you will be hearing direct from your son on the subject but we understand that the Papers have been deposited in the William Salt Library, Stafford, only about a year ago. That is to say, when we first wrote to Lord Dartmouth in 1954 they were still at his house and this we confirmed at the time with the MS Dept. at the British Museum which keeps track of the whereabouts of all important known collections of MSS.

If we do not hear very shortly from the Salt Library we will communicate with them. Doubtless there are very many letters that would interest you, apart from the few listed in your letter to us of May 24, 1954. We will find out from the Library if anyone there could undertake to search through and report on what is available but, if the answer is negative, we could arrange for a searcher to up to Stafford and do the work.

As soon as there is anything to report from the Library we will write again, and in the meantime remain

Yours faithfully

Dear Dr. Robinson,

Many thanks for your two friendly letters. I had hoped to be able to reply before this with the news that copies of the letters from the Dartmouth Papers were on their way to you, but unfortunately there is a fresh, though not serious, delay.

After a month had gone by I wrote to the William Salt Library to enquire how the work was going on, and on Sept. 5th the librarian informed me that it had been delayed by the absence on holiday of the man who does their photo-copying. To-day another letter has come saying that the photographer has been taken ill and may be away for some days but that the matter shall have priority when he returns.

As soon as we receive the copies we shall, of course, mail them to you. There is plenty of money still in hand to your credit and no need to think of sending any further sum for the present.

When these copies are at last made, how would you like us to proceed with further copies? Will you make a selection from the printed calendar of the Dartmouth Papers (Ryl. Comm. on Historical MSS) and let us know, from time to time, which items you want, or do you wish us to arrange for a searcher to do this work of selection for you? Naturally, the first course would save expense and perhaps it would be more satisfactory to you in the long run. We have confirmed from the Librarian that the permission to make copies on your behalf is general and not confined merely to those now in hand.

By a curious chance I met a student the other day who had also desired access to the Dartmouth Papers at about the same time as we first applied on your behalf. Like ourselves, he met with no response whatever and had to wait until the Papers reached the comparative publicity of the William Salt Library.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely ,

Dear Dr. Robinson,

Many thanks for yours of September together with the enclosed list of further items to be photocopied.

I am glad to be able to advise you that the first lot of copies ~~of~~ being mailed to you to-day by book post and I trust you will receive them in good order.

The new list of letters will be put in hand within a few days, but William Salt report that they cannot trace in their copy of hist. MSS Comm. 14th Report, Appendix 10, the item listed as p.220, 1775 August 23, Haverford West, Rev.J. Wesley, and they say that the name of Rev.J. Wesley does not appear in the index. Is there some misunderstanding here? They also report that the item listed in the 14th Rpt. Appendix 10, p.115 )Dec.28 1772, Rev.
E. Wheelock to Lord D.) has been sent to Dartmouth College
"presumably that at Hanover, New Hampshire".

I think the idea of asking Miss Mander if she would undertake to search the papers is a very good one, but believe that the suggestion would come better from you than from us in the first place. If she agrees, she could get in touch with us regarding the usual rates of payment (which are 7s.6d. per hour ($1.00) ) and we would disburse the necessary sums to her on your behalf. It is usual, of course, also to pay the searcher any out-of-pocket expenses involved - fares, meals, lodging if staying overnight, etc.

With best wishes,
Yours sincerely,

Ralph A. Brown

Many thanks for your remittance in payment of our bill of Oct. 20th and for your kind note sent at the same time. When next you see your son and daughter-in-law please remember me kindly to them. I feel they deserve most of the credit, along with Miss Mander, for the material we have been able to get for you from

Please do not send any more money; we have quite a lot still to your credit and will advise you when it eventually runs out.

We are writing to William Salt asking them to make a search on the lines you suggest and, before making photo copies, will report to you whatever they find.
